A: To fix it try upgrading. The newer version seems to get the cracking on zip files for some reason. Click on the Play Store icon. Type in the word "upgrade" and hit the Enter Key. You should get the option to select the version you want to update to. It looks like the Android version you are using (version 5.1.1) has a small problem with [crack] file extensions in zip files. Either that or they are simply not working for you. Here are two posts with a fix.
